

SUBJECT COMBINATIONS

COURSE STRUCTURE AND CREDITS: B.Com. (GENERAL)

The curriculum consists of 10 courses worth a total of 60 credits. The courses are designated as CC 1-10, with CC 1 and 2 offered in the first semester, CC 3 and 4 in the second semester, CC 5 and 6 in the third semester, and CC 7 and 8 in the fourth semester. CC 9 and 10 are offered in the fifth semester, and the courses for the sixth semester are yet to be determined.

The program includes two language courses worth a total of 12 credits. The language courses, designated as CC-1 and CC-2, are offered in the first and third semesters, respectively. In the second, fourth, fifth, and sixth semesters, no language course is offered. The first language course (L1-1) is offered in the first semester, and the second language course (L1-2) is offered in the third semester.

The program consists of four courses, designated as DSE 1-4, worth a total of 24 credits. DSE 1 and DSE 2 are offered in the fifth semester, while DSE 3 and DSE 4 are offered in the sixth semester. No DSE courses are offered in the first four semesters.

The program includes two General Elective (GE) courses worth a total of 12 credits. GE-1 is offered in the second semester, and GE-2 is offered in the sixth semester. No GE courses are offered in the first, third, fourth, and fifth semesters.

The program includes two Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC) worth a total of 6 credits. AECC-1 is offered in the first semester, and AECC-2 is offered in the second semester. No AECC courses are offered in the third, fourth, fifth, or sixth semesters. AECC-1 is a 2-credit course, and AECC-2 is also a 2-credit course.

The program comprises four courses in the Skill Enhancement Course (SEC) category worth a total of 8 credits. SEC-1 is offered in the third semester, SEC-2 and SEC-3 are offered in the fourth semester, and SEC-4 is offered in the sixth semester. No SEC courses are offered in the first, second, and fifth semesters.

The program consists of 24 courses in total, with four courses offered per semester. The number of courses remains the same in all six semesters, with a total of 4 courses per semester. The total credits for the program are not mentioned.

The program offers varying credit hours per semester, with a total of 122 credits. The first semester has 22 credits, while the following semesters have 20 credits each. The total number of courses in the program is not specified.

The program includes various types of courses based on the CBCS syllabus, including Core Courses and Discipline-Specific Elective courses. The program also includes Generic Elective courses, L1-1 and L1-2 courses in English, as well as two courses in Ability Enhancement Compulsory Courses (AECC), which are ENVS and Communicative English/MIL (Bengali/French).

Note:

CC – Core Course, GE – Generic Elective, DSE – Discipline Specific Elective, AECC – Ability Enhancement Compulsory Course, MIL – Modern Indian Language